Above and Beyond: Legion Guard John Stone's Heroic Act on the Streets of Union Square

While patrol on near the intersections of Mason and Taylor Streets, Legion Guard John Stone found himself thrust into a moment of crisis that showcased his exceptional commitment to the of the safety and well-being community.

Stone heard raised voices and observed a man and a woman engaged in a physical altercation. The man was attempting to steal the young lady's purse. As the assailant managed to wrestle the purse away from the young lady, he ran down Ellis Street. Stone began pursuit, ending at the Muni station entrance at Ellis and Stockton.

In a remote corner of the station, Stone discovered the perpetrator, overcome by fear and desperation. The man began to plead and make erratic statements, imploring for his next fix. Despite the tense circumstances, Stone took on the role of mediator. With no police backup in sight and the civilian victim in tow, Stone engaged the man in a negotiation. $10.00 later, the young lady was reunited with her bag, and the ordeal was brought to an end.

Stone's actions serve as a shining example of responsibility and determination that the Union Square Alliance teams on the street can aspire to emulate. This extraordinary act deserves recognition and gratitude from the entire community, extending beyond the young lady who had her purse returned.

We also made sure Mr. Stone got his $10.00 back!

A 'Chip' off the Ole Block by Block

Block By Block Welcomes Chip as the new West Coast District Vice President.

Most people have a last name, but Chip isn't like most people. He started going by "Chip" around his friends during his teenage years and the name just stuck. He decided to make himself officially mononymous and changed his full legal name to just 'Chip.'.

Chip has been in downtown management in various roles for two decades after his business in a downtown district introduced him to the world. Chip is coming to Block by Block (BBB) from the Downtown Boulder Partnership in Colorado, where he served as CEO for the last four years. Prior to working with Downtown Boulder, Chip worked with the Downtown Association of Santa Cruz (DTSC), California. At other points in his career, he has worked with the California Downtown Association (CDA) and the International Downtown Association (IDA) communities.

Chip is no stranger to BBB. He brought Ambassadors to Downtown Boulder in 2020 and DTSC hired BBB the same year at his suggestion. As a BBB customer, Chip had already established many relationships with work colleagues at BBB.

BBB and Union Square Alliance look forward to Chip taking the reins of the West Coast accounts and seeing all he will accomplish in this new role. Congratulations, Chip! Before you know it, you'll be a regular Chip off the ole Block by Block!

Street Teams Working Together

By Lance Gorée

Regrettably, in the early hours of August 21st, the heart installation at Geary and Powell experienced an act of vandalism. As evident in the image, a group of 4 to 5 "gentlemen" forcibly dislodged the heart from its pedestal, resulting in noticeable damage.

But there is a Silver Lining...

In a heartening display of unity, the teams from Block By Block, Legion, and Men At Work, totaling 6 or 7 individuals, joined forces to restore the heart to its rightful place. I won't dwell on the significance of this collaboration here, although it's undoubtedly heartwarming. This type of teamwork is crucial moving forward, Not Just in Union Square Park but across the district. Discussions with the teams on how to work more collaboratively are ongoing.

What We Do

Before

After

Before

After

After

The key purpose of these Before and After pictures is to visually demonstrate the transformation our teams work to achieve. Unfortunately, it also goes to show the negative impact some members of our community work hard to attain.

Evidence of progress: Before and After pictures serve as tangible evidence of progress or improvements achieved over time. They can showcase the effectiveness of a product, service, treatment, or project by showing the initial state and the final outcome.
